

No Vacancy? No Problem.....

Motorhome Expo at Mountview

Ever wanted to travel but take that “homely feel” with you, is the open road calling you, have you seen the outback, Lake Eyre in flood or the wonders of Uluru?

Mountview Wines is please to present a weekend long expo of Motorhomes from the Brisbane company, Motorhome Conversion Co. This company has a great reputation for converting existing vans, campers and buses into reliable vehicles ready to travel the great distances around Australia, in a layout to suit your needs. They also have a great range of new and preloved campers and motorhomes, with a selection of impressive options.

John Jeffreys from Motorhome Conversion Company said “The demand is great and we can accommodate for every price range, travelling Australia in comfort should be available to anyones budget,” “from the smallest trailer type to the movers and shakers who just want to spend their time travelling in style with “no fixed abode”. Motorhomes are a great way to travel, with all of the comforts of home and the ability to stop anywhere that takes your eye.

Mountview Wines will also be hosting the Emu Swamp Art exhibition with displays by local artists. This exhibition has a great range and is not to be missed.

The weekend will also have some local produce on display from Glen Aplin’s own Natures Glen, who have honey and jams all made with local products. Noleen Leming reports that the honey has various natural healing properties and is great for sinus, hayfever and skin conditions. Natures Glen boasts the only Qld Safron grower.

Mountview Wines will also host a FREE SAUSAGE SIZZLE and of course the grounds are available for picnics. Angela McGrath adds “our community pizza oven will be fired up and ready to go, so we welcome people to come and try the wood fired pizza.”

The 2008 Bloody Good Red will also be available by the glass and of course our free wine tasting.

David McGrath from Mountview Wines asks everyone from Southern Downs to Brisbane to take the time and call out and see these wonderful motorhomes that are on display. “it’s such a great display and a fantastic opportunity to see these vehicles in your own backyard. The value and workmanship must be seen to be believed!”

So don’t sit at home this weekend, come and get a sausage, have a glass of great wine and enjoy the display. Ready to Travel.....
